Walpole Arts & Music Fest 2006

Saturday, October 14, 2006

10:00 a.m. — 4:00 p.m.

Rain date: Sunday, October 15th

On the Fields outside
Blackburn Hall
Downtown Walpole, Massachusetts

Walpole will, again, be welcoming citizens from all over the world to come and enjoy THE 3rd ANNUAL WALPOLE ARTS & MUSIC FEST on October 14, 2006. The WALPOLE ARTS & MUSIC FEST, as always, will be an eclectic event for children, adults, and seniors to admire artists of all concepts while they teach, learn, exhibit, and primarily, enjoy one another.

Walpole will be host to painters, sculptors, musicians, puppeteers, jewelers, actors, photographers, poets, culinary aficionados, writers, and illustrators. Artists of all kinds are welcome to submit their applications to the Arts & History Committee. The Committee is usually quite liberal, but they reserve the right to deny participation only to maintain the feel of the Fest. Walpole's main priority for the Fest is to offer a spectacular event with a complete respect for a variety of art forms.

Walpole, itself, is a hidden jewel with breathtaking ponds, forests, fields and farms and many artists escape the hustle and bustle of Boston and Providence to clear their minds and work on their masterpieces here.

Please know that the Committee will be careful in choosing a broad range of exhibits in order to make the Fest full of artistic variety. Also, it must be known that the ideals for the Fest are originality, creativity, and workmanship. Walpole and the citizens who are hosting the Fest hope people from all over will enjoy a day of fabulous art, food, music and camaraderie.

"WAMF" RULES

Choosing exhibitors is a precise process for the 3rd Annual Walpole Arts & Music Fest. As always, we are hoping to gather our faithful friends and veterans of the Fest. We also hope to recruit new artistic and musical neighbors from surrounding communities to share Walpole's enthusiasm for the annual Fest. Walpole stresses the desire for originality of its exhibitors, so the committee politely urges that vendors who distribute mass-produced or assembled products or commercial goods not fill out the application. However, we would love anyone who works within those mediums to join us as guests of the Fest and enjoy food, music, poetry and new-found friendships.

1. The deadline to submit applications is September 25, 2006. Please send to:

WALPOLE ARTS & MUSIC FEST
c/o the Walpole Recreation Department
135 School Street
Walpole, MA 02081

2. The fee is $45.00 per booth to be sent in with the application, medium description, and how the artist would like to be described in the Fest Guidebook.
3. We will contact the artists with event details by September 29, 2006.

Walpole can not refund any fees due to inclement weather ... please ... it is New England. If not accepted, the check of $45.00 will be returned expeditiously.

DISPLAY INFORMATION:

Each artist's space for a booth measures 15' x 15' and is on flat, level grass. As each location is similar in aesthetics, the Committee will determine where each artist will display so as to provide a diverse layout for the Fest's visitors and participants. If an artist has any special requests, the Committee will certainly attempt to honor them. Please remember when applying for a booth, this is an outdoor event, which must thrive (be it shiny, rainy, or in New England possibly even snowy.)

1. Artists will supply their own display units which will be pleasant to the eye, friendly and sturdy enough to withstand typical Festival conditions. Please keep in mind our lovely New England weather tendencies. (The booth must be secured!)
2. Please keep all supply cases and boxes and unused materials out of sight.
3. Electricity is NOT available.
4. Each exhibitor is responsible for his/her own property (even if bought and stored for a customer) in the event of loss, damage, or injury to one's self. **
5. There will be ample parking for the artists, but we ask that artists and helpers unload and be set up by 9:30AM and may not break down until 4:00PM.

Again – to be clear – The Walpole Arts & Music Fest, Walpole Arts and History Committee, the Walpole Recreation Department, or the Town of Walpole will not assume any responsibility for display, merchandise, or art in the process of being made.
